

REMARKS

The specification was objected to on the grounds of various informalities. The specification and the Abstract have been amended to correct informalities and idiomatic language. According to the Office Action, the application lacks titles. The specification has been amended to add headings, and the title of the application was added in a Preliminary Amendment filed March 15, 2004. No new matter is added. It is respectfully submitted that with these amendments, the objections to the specification have been overcome and should be withdrawn.

Applicants respectfully submit that the patent application is in condition for allowance. If, in the opinion of the Examiner, a telephone conference would expedite the prosecution of the subject application, the Examiner is invited to call the undersigned attorney.

Respectfully submitted,
